

THE CITY'S SOCIAL SIDE

Picture Exhibit Well Attended By Society Folk

A brilliant audience assembled last evening in Mr. and Mrs. Edson Bradley's splendid ball room to witness the exhibition of color photographs of French battlefields, which were shown for the benefit of "Reformers No. 2." French soldiers crippled by the war. The pictures were taken by Prof. Gervais Courtellemont, noted French explorer, scientist, and author, in their natural colors on plates made by a new process, and were shown under the auspices of the French government. They have been presented but once before in this country—at Here Land in New York. Prof. Courtellemont made a short address in French last evening, and John Barrett, director general of the Pan-American Union, gave the lecture explaining the pictures.

The French Ambassador and Mme. Jusserand entertained a box party for the exhibition and had as their guests the Vice President and Mrs. Thomas Riley Marshall, Lady Spring Rice, wife of the British Ambassador, the Secretary of the Interior and Mrs. Lane, and the Minister of Switzerland, Hans Sulzer. Mr. and Mrs. Bradley joined the party after receiving the guests. The Secretary of War and Mrs. Baker were guests of Miss Mabel Boardman, who had Mrs. William J. Boardman's box. Maj. Gen. John Bidle, U. S. A., and Miss Katherine Lowe, of Cleveland, who is visiting Secretary and Mrs. Baker, were also guests of Miss Boardman.

Mrs. Marshall Field had with her in her box Mrs. Hare Lippincott, Miss Lippincott, Mrs. Christopher Raymond P. Rodgers, Basil Miles, Victor Elting, and Leland Harrison. Mrs. E. H. G. Slater also occupied a box and had guests with her.

Among those in the audience were the Solicitor General and Mrs. John W. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cleveland Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Westcott, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Wagaman, Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Elkins, Mrs. Blaine Beale, Mrs. Arthur Lee, Mrs. Frank Brett Noyes, Miss Frances Noyes, Mrs. Edmund Pendleton, and Mrs. Arthur Graham Glasgow. Mrs. Clarence Wilson, Miss Emery, Mrs. Edward H. Gheen, Miss Gheen, Mrs. Charles Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Francisco J. Yanes, Dr. and Mrs. Walter Wells, Mrs. Lucien Lee Kinchling, Mrs. Roscoe Bulmer, Mr. and Mrs. William Eaches Fendall, Mrs. Lewis Hayes Watkins, Miss Cora de Wilhorst, Mrs. Nancy Gordon Jones, Mrs. Archibald Hopkins, Mrs. Dolores Blodgett, Mrs. Charles Graves Matthews, Mrs. T. DeWitt Talmage, Mrs. William A. Slater, Jr., Mrs. Matthew T. Scott, and Mrs. Carl Vrooman.

The President, who spent the greater part of yesterday in conference with Col. E. M. House, a guest at the White House, slipped away in the afternoon long enough to join Mrs. Wilson in her box at the Beaudry Theater, where she entertained guests for John McCormack's recital, the first of a series he is giving to raise funds for the Red Cross. Mrs. Wilson's guests were Mrs. William

Miss Alice Hutchins Drake will tell the story of Christmas as it has been interpreted by great artists tomorrow morning at the Teachers' Club, the Berry & Whitmore building, at 11 o'clock. The lecture will be repeated as usual in the evening, in the drawing room of an apartment in Washington Heights. Miss Drake has already told the story twice this season at benefit lectures, the first being the Red Cross benefit which was given by the Children of the American Revolution, and the second being the "Christmas Barrel Talk," given in connection with the Booklovers' Hour this week at the Young Women's Christian Association.

Mrs. Robert Patterson has gone to Chicago to spend Christmas.

Haruko Onuki Guest of Club.
Haruko Onuki, the Japanese prima donna, will be the guest of honor at the Congressional Club on Friday afternoon at the club's weekly tea. She will give a song recital at 4 o'clock and tea will be served at 5 o'clock.

The Congressional Club is fast being metamorphosed into a workshop for war relief. Classes in surgical dressings are held every Tuesday and Wednesday all day, and Thursdays are devoted to hospital sewing.

Wedding In Trinity Church Brilliant Event

Trinity Episcopal Church was the scene of an interesting wedding last evening when Miss Mary Elizabeth Van Fossen, daughter of the rector of the church, the Rev. George W. Van Fossen, and Mrs. Van Fossen, became the bride of James Edward Schwab.

The ceremony, performed at 8 o'clock, by the bride's father, was marked in every detail by great beauty of appointment.

Tall palms flanked the chancel on either side, and a beautiful archway was formed by festoons of Christmas greens. The altar was lighted by tapers in tall candelabra, and white ribbons marked off the pews. The ceremony was preceded by an organ recital by Henry McChord, and immediately before the entrance of the bride the marriage hymn "The Voice That Breathed 'O' Eden," was sung by a vested choir of sixty voices.

The Rt. Rev. Alfred Harding, Bishop of Washington, who was to have pronounced the blessing, was unable to be present as he was called unexpectedly to New York.

The bride walked alone to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March. She was given away by her uncle, Robert Seyre Smylie, of Atlantic City. Her gown was of soft white satin made with a short skirt and a long court train. Handsome point lace that had adorned her mother's wedding gown formed part of the bodice and was draped on the skirt, caught with clusters of orange blossoms which were also on Mrs. Van Fossen's bridal gown. She wore the tulle veil over her face and caught to the hair with a coronet of orange blossoms. Her bouquet was of orchids and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. C. Temple Murphy, of Pasadena, Cal., as matron of honor, wore a gown of French blue panne velvet with long train and trimmings of silver lace. Her hat was a large model of black tulle trimmed with a bird of paradise. Miss Helen Mittman, of South Bethlehem, as maid of honor, was in a dainty gown of silver lace over white metal cloth, and a large hat of white tulle and cloth of silver.

The bride's attendants carried tall silver staffs mounted with bouquets of white roses tied with white tulle and silver ribbon.

The bridesmaids were Miss Sarah Hickling, Miss Marie Covert, Miss Alice Kirkpatrick, of Bethesda, Md.; Miss Constance Houghton, of Scamton, Pa.; Miss Madelyn Plummer, of Lisbon Falls, Me.; Miss Pauline Schied, of Tamaqua, Pa. They wore attractive gowns of white tulle over silver cloth, embroidered in silver thread.

Their hair was braided in silver lace with crowns of four crossed stripes of silver ribbon. Long tulle streamers hung over one shoulder and were tied to one of the flowing tulle sleeves of the gowns.

Lieut. Milton Schwab, U. S. R., was best man for his brother, Samuel Mittman, of South Bethlehem, Pa.; Fernando Gonzales and Eduardo Gonzales, of Mexico City; Herman Mathai, Franklin Myers, Robert Crowder, and Barnum Colton were the ushers.

A reception followed the ceremony, and a stringed orchestra played throughout the evening.

Mr. Schwab and his bride will reside in Washington after their honeymoon.

The list of box holders for the Red Cross benefit on Thursday afternoon at the Belasco at 4:45 o'clock when the Motet Choral Society will give a concert, under the direction of Otto Torney Simon for the benefit of the Christmas Tree Fund which provides Christmas cheer for soldiers and sailors stationed in and around Washington, is now complete. They are the President and Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Wadsworth, Mrs. Saulsbury, Mrs. Howard Gould, of New York; David Belmont, Gen. Julian Carr, Mrs. Richard Townsend, Mrs. Haggis, Mrs. Julian James, Mrs. Francis Berger Moran, Mrs. Matthew T. Scott, Mrs. R. D. Shepherd, Mrs. Alexander Hunter Galt, Mrs. Joseph E. Thropp, Mrs. Tucker K. Sander, Mrs. Samuel McRoberts, Mrs. R. C. Ringgold, and Mrs. B. D. Spilman, of Warrenton.

There will be four unique tableaux in connection with the music, the angels being represented by Miss Kathryn Hitchcock, Miss Rivero, Miss Page, and Mrs. Dolph.

Mrs. R. D. Shepherd is chairman of the entertainment committee, and arranged the tableaux into four parts: "The Church," "The Patriot," "The People," and "The Child."

Senator Phelan Host.
Senator James D. Phelan entertained informally at dinner last evening for Mr. and Mrs. John McCormack.

Mrs. C. W. Robertson is entertaining this afternoon at the second of a series of bridge parties she is giving at her apartment in the Cairo. There were thirty-two guests.
